Company Description

When we say 'our community' we mean it. UMMC Midtown Campus, one of two campuses of the University of Maryland Medical Center, has had a long history of working to keep our community healthy and has grown to become a trusted teaching hospital for medical and surgical care in Baltimore City. Located in Baltimore's cultural center near the historic Mount Vernon neighborhood, UMMC Midtown Campus is a 180-bed, community teaching hospital with a focus on helping people manage chronic diseases, including diabetes, hypertension, pulmonary conditions, and infectious diseases.

Job Description

Under limited supervision, works collaboratively with stakeholders to acquire, manage, manipulate, and analyze data and report results on clinical outcomes, compliance and standards of care. Analyst provides advanced design, development, maintenance, documentation, and support for System clinical quality reporting applications. Actively solicits customer need and information requirement from key customer groups, including Quality and Safety Leadership, Quality Physicians, and Nursing and Patient Care Services staff and leadership. Develops and produces standard and ad hoc reports that support clinical resource management, quality improvement, patient safety and outcomes management. Delegates tasks to Health Care Information Analyst I.

Qualifications

Education & Experience Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university with a concentration Health Services Research, other health or informatics related field or combination of education and years of experience. Three to five years of progressively responsible professional work experience with a minimum of two years data analysis experience required. Healthcare related background is preferred.

Additional Information

All your information will be kept confidential according to EEO guidelines. Compensation: Pay Range: $35.07-$52.63 Other Compensation (if applicable): Review the 2024-2025 UMMS Benefits Guide